The MIC Program content is organized into seminars lasting 24 hours each. They are scheduled in sets of two and take place every 6-12 weeks for six consecutive days, Monday through Saturday. The courses start in March 2017 and last until September 2018. Six week sessions will take place in Lugano, one week session will take place in Lausanne; two will take place abroad (in Fez, Morocco and in Bangkok, Thailand)[1]. The overall program amounts to a total workload of approximately 1800 hours, consisting of 500 hours of instruction, 900 hours of individual work preparing for seminars, reviewing study materials and writing certification papers, as well as 400 hours dedicated to the MIC Personal Project.

Costs

Fees and tuition: CHF 19,500.

Tuition fees include the costs of the instructional material distributed in class and test fees.

Not included are costs for books, accommodation in Switzerland (Lugano and Lausanne), accommodation during the weeks of master organized abroad: Fez (Marocco) and Bangkok (Thailand) and travels to Lugano, Lausanne, Geneva, Berne and abroad.
