

MIC Scholarship Application Instruction

Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of the candidate's educational background, country of residence (priority is given to participants coming from developing countries), professional experience, motivation and financial situation.

To apply for a MIC Scholarship, in addition to the standard application dossier which may be downloaded from the MIC website, the candidate is required to provide the following information:

- a letter explaining his/her general economic situation and need for financial support;
- a short salary history summarizing organizations he/she has worked for, together with the monthly payments received;
- a copy of his/her last salary payroll receipt from his/her current employer and taxation decision (when available).

Please note that the scholarship amount received will be deducted from the tuition fees of the MIC Program, although there will be no exemption for the 2'500 CHF reservation deposit, which is a mandatory University requirement for presenting a letter of admission.

In case you receive a scholarship award, you will receive a formal notification letter and a revised personal financial plan mentioning installment amounts due and payment deadlines.
